As we outreach grassroots, seeking political strategy, ALIP will convert our people's already fully developed sense of political activism in the party politics, into the direction of the popular cry for self-determination of the Ambazonian people. Branches of ALIP all over the world should recite this message of Ambazonia rights to its Independence. By us adopting consensus decision making processes, ALIP's hope is to transcend ethnic and regional division pre-emptively set by the Cameroon government to weaken our cohesive resolve - through meetings, symposiums, demonstrations, lobbying of national governments, NGOs, private individuals and business entities, ALIP hopes to get across its message of TRUTH over the current bias which favors the illegal Cameroonian state.

- 3- Public Meeting ALIP time and time would conduct public meetings making this information widely available by use of all media. Here the importance of education will be stressed over simply getting angry and frustrated.
